

Drops and Withdrawals at CSULB via MyCSULB Spring 2025

Using Academic guides students through self

Follow the directions at the 'Withdraw' tab in the Academics Section of MyCSULB, accessed via Sign On \(SSO\). Justification and supporting documentation are required and must be uploaded with the request to withdraw.

Approvals required include the student's instructor, the chairperson of the department offering the class, and the Associate Dean of the college in which the class is offered. All requests will be submitted to the Withdrawal Committee for review. Students will receive an email with the decision.