

The campus has several signature trees the lemon-scented eucalyptus and the pink Helen Borchers flowering peach that you can see beyond the pond and existing garden trees. But my selection of trees and plants for the garden was a bit more complicated, there's such a wealth of plant material that